

CDW Education Services

Empowering schools with effective AI adoption.

Guided Adoption and Change Management for Copilot Service

The Guided Adoption and Change Management for Copilot service is designed to help schools and districts effectively adopt Microsoft Copilot for M365 Education. This service targets IT administrators and district leaders, offering comprehensive guidance to build customer confidence and usage. It includes synchronous training sessions, a framework for rolling out Microsoft Copilot, and best practices for user enablement across the lifecycle.

Guided Adoption and Change Management for Copilot service can help you achieve:

Operational Efficiencies

Increased Performance

Faster Innovation

Finding the Right Solution

The Guided Adoption and Change Management for Copilot service includes a variety of components designed to ensure successful implementation and usage of Microsoft Copilot for M365 Education. This service provides a structured change management program tailored to the institution's values and vision, focusing on both technical preparedness and user readiness. Key features include synchronous training sessions for IT administrators and district leaders, a detailed framework for rolling out Microsoft Copilot, and best practices for user enablement throughout the lifecycle. CDW stands out due to our extensive experience in educational IT consulting and our proven methodologies. We deliver not only training but also a comprehensive change management toolkit and ongoing support to ensure that your institution maximizes the benefits of Microsoft Copilot.

Services Overview

The following is included in a Guided Adoption and Change Management for Copilot Service:

Service	Included
A structured plan for schools and districts to implement Copilot effectively.	✓
Guidance on optimal applications and strategies for maximizing user adoption.	✓
Interactive training to build confidence and understanding among IT administrators and district leaders.	✓

CDW's full lifecycle of Services can support your organization no matter where you are on your journey

Services-JC-050725

CDW Amplified for Education

CDW's long-standing partnership with Microsoft enables us to deliver exceptional services and solutions tailored to your needs. Our expertise and collaborative approach ensure that you receive the best possible support and guidance throughout your journey with Microsoft technologies. Trust CDW to help you achieve your goals with confidence and efficiency.

To learn more about Guided Adoption and Change Management for Copilot Service, contact your account manager or call 800.800.4239.

